

California Writers Club-SFV "Serving greater Los Angeles"

Membership Information:

California Writers Club (CWC) is a nonprofit organization for writers with varied interests. The CWC exists to nurture our membership, both professional & novice, in the art and business of writing. Founded by Jack London in 1909, we are the most established writer's club in the USA.

What we do:

Monthly guest speaker events feature agents, editors, publishers, authors, poets, writing teachers, etc. CWC sponsors member readings, networking, active critique groups, workshops, and valuable information for writers of all stripes - every 2nd Saturday afternoon of the month at the Encino Community Center.

We have many Open Mikes for writers.

- > Barnes & Noble, Encino is held year-round, 7 PM on the 2nd Friday of the month.
- > Borders, Canoga Park is the 3rd Thursday of the month. Come enjoy your five to ten minutes of fame. ☺

We publish periodic anthologies of member works and sponsor a Writer's Conferences.

- > Peruse our updated website!
- > Check our all-new publication:

THE SCRIBE, which has new opportunities to expand your horizons and get you published!
> Become a volunteer: as grows our visibility in the community, so grows the prestige and credibility of your name.
